AMENDMENTS

Under clause 6 of rule XXIII, proposed amendments were submitted as follows:

H.R. 4

By Mr. BENNETT:

—Page 3, after line 21, insert the following:

"(d) Whoever falsely asserts, publishes, or otherwise claims that any individual is an officer or employee of a department or agency of the United States engaged in foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities, where such assertion, publication, or claim prejudices the safety or well-being of any officer, employee, or citizen of the United States or adversely affects the foreign affairs functions of the United States, shall be imprisoned for not more than five years or fined not more than $50,000, or both."

"(e) Whenever, in the judgment of the head of any department or agency engaged in foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities, any person is about to engage in conduct that would constitute a violation of this Act, the Attorney General, on behalf of the United States, may make application to an appropriate United States district court for an order enjoining such conduct. Upon a showing that the safety or well-being of any officer, employee, or citizen of the United States would likely be jeopardized or that irreparable damage to United States foreign intelligence or counterintelligence activities or foreign affairs functions would be likely to result if such conduct is carried out, a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or other order may be granted. Any proceeding conducted by a court under this subsection for the purpose of determining whether any information constitutes the type of information described in this Act shall be held in camera.

By Mr. BENNETT:

—Page 21, after line 3, insert the following new section:

Sec. 122. None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used to grant a business license to any person who, after the date of enactment of this Act, offers drug paraphernalia (as defined in the Model Drug Paraphernalia Act drafted by the United States Department of Justice, August 1979) for sale in the course of the business for which such license is required.

By Mr. PARRIS:

—Page (21), after line (3), insert the following new section:

Sec. (122). None of the funds appropriated in this Act may be used for the implementation of a personnel lottery with respect to the hiring of firefighters or police officers.
